Alexander Garcia

1. Question 1

   (a) When rolling the first number, the result does not matter, as only rolls 2-5 determine if two of the same numbers occur. Thus the probability of rolling a number at least twice is $\frac{1}{100}$

1